Winnipeg, Manitoba- September 3, 2013 - BOSS Racing is pleased to announce the signing of Pro athlete, Darrin Mees for the 2013-14 race season. Mees is a well respected snocross athlete with many noteworthy wins to his credit. He was nominated as the 2012 Rookie of the Year and has since established a solid reputation for finishing in the top five on the national series. In 11-12 he finished the season 4th overall and was holding the 5th place slot in 12-13 when an injury to his knee slowed his momentum.

Darrin brings a welcome good nature and hard work ethic to the program. His quiet nature belies his competitive drive- he is fast, consistent and truly one of the best hopefuls on the circuit for the championship.

BOSS has also inked a new multi- year deal with Petter Narsa, returning him for the Team Jimmy John's snocross team. The internationally acclaimed Swedish born snocross athlete, was the fastest qualifier headed into the main at the 2013 Winter X Games, and finished second overall against Tucker Hibbert in the prestigious Clash De Nations this past spring.

“ We are positioning all of our assets to focus on the Pro Class this season and we are eager to get underway. The boys are already hard at work- they are really stepping up their game this season.” - Garry Querel
